

the United States, of any lands which may have been or shall be erroneously conveyed or approved to the state of Wisconsin by the United States, and all claim and title of the state, acquired by such erroneous conveyance or approval to any such lands shall thereupon and thereby be released according to the tenor and effect of such deeds.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 12, 1878.

[No. 190, S.]

[Published March 23, 1878.]

CHAPTER 148.

AN ACT to provide for the election of district attorney for Brown county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

District attorney — when elected.

SECTION 1. The next election of district attorney for Brown county shall be held on the day of the general election in November, 1879, and every two years thereafter an election shall be held for such office; except in case of a vacancy in said office, occurring by the death, resignation or inability of the incumbent, in which event the election for said office shall be held at the next general election in November after the occurrence of said vacancy.

Officer continued.

SECTION 2. The present incumbent shall hold said office of district attorney of Brown county for two years from the first day of January, 1878, and until his successor is elected and qualified, unless a vacancy shall occur as provided for in the first section of this act.

SECTION 3. This act shall be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 18, 1878.